 - 4) ECTS credits – this shall mean credits defined in the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System as measure of average workload of a studying individual which is required to acquire the intended learning outcomes.
4. Terms and conditions of conducting doctoral assessment processes, as well as conferment of the academic degree of doktor are governed by separate regulations.

1. Access to doctoral programmes shall be open to persons who hold second cycle qualifications or is beneficiary of the ‘Diamond Grant’ programme, referred to in Article 187a (1) of the act.
2. Requirements and procedure of enrolment to doctoral programmes shall be determined by the Senate of the Jagiellonian University by means of a resolution.

1. Doctoral programmes are created and liquidated by the Rector by means of regulation upon a motion of the council of an organisational unit.
2. Motion concerning creation of a doctoral programme shall comply with requirements stated in the act and implementing rules to the act. In addition, the motion shall determine: the date of doctoral programme commencement, admission limit as well as analysis of doctoral programme impact on organisational, teaching and human resources, as well as economic and financial situation of the organisational unit which files the motion. The motion shall as well take into consideration additional requirements provided for in separate regulations for creation of part-time doctoral programmes, if such programmes are to be provided. In case of creation of partnership-based doctoral programmes the motion shall be accompanied by copies of agreements and contracts regarding cooperation within that scope. In the motion there may be indicated the need of concluding agreements with doctoral students as regards issues of intellectual property related to the conducted research. The motion shall be accompanied by opinion issued by the Association of Doctoral Students of the Jagiellonian University regarding creation of a doctoral programme.

3. The motion shall be filed at least 6 months prior to the planned date of doctoral programme commencement.

1. Doctoral programmes may be provided as full-time and part-time programmes.
2. Full-time doctoral programmes shall be free from tuition fees, except for cases provided for in separate regulations.
3. Upon a motion of the council of an organisational unit the Rector decides that part-time doctoral programmes are chargeable.
4. The amount of tuition fees for doctoral programmes referred to in point 3 shall be determined by the Rector by means of regulation.
5. Detailed conditions for charging fees, including procedure and requirements of exempting from fees shall be determined by the Senate of the Jagiellonian University.

1. Doctoral programme shall last not less than 2 years and not longer than 4 years.
2. Head of a doctoral programme, upon a motion of a doctoral student, having heard an opinion issued by an academic tutor or academic supervisor, may extend the period of a doctoral programme, exempting a doctoral student from the duty of attending academic courses, in the case of necessity of a long-term conduction of research related to the doctoral programme, in total not longer than for two years.
3. Head of a doctoral programme, upon a motion of a doctoral student, may additionally extend the period of a doctoral programme, exempting a doctoral student from the duty of attending academic courses in the case of:
 - 1) temporary incapacity of pursuing studies due to health condition,
 - 2) necessity to personally take care of a family member with health conditions,

- 5) organise performance of the study programme, as well as elaborate and present to the basic organisational unit authorities motions regarding programme and curriculum of a doctoral programme;
- 6) assess performance of the study programme, including conducting research by doctoral students, in compliance with terms specified by the council of an organisational unit, as well as examine doctoral students' applications regarding this assessment;
- 7) assess doctoral students' achievements for the purpose of drawing ranking lists for scholarship for outstanding doctoral students;
- 8) extend the period of a doctoral programme;
- 9) issue opinion to an application filed by a doctoral student who wants to transfer from other higher education institution to a doctoral programme at the Jagiellonian University;
- 10) be the chairperson of a doctoral scholarship committee.

Chapter 5 – Academic tutor

§ 24

1. The position of an academic tutor can be held by an academic teacher or staff member of a research unit who holds at least the academic degree of doktor habilitowany within the given or related discipline of science and academic achievements published within the period of last 5 years or artistic achievements from the period of last 5 years, who gave in writing their consent for providing academic tutelage over a doctoral student for the whole period of a doctoral programme. A person who is not an employee of the unit may be an academic tutor provided that council of an organisational unit agrees.
2. Removal of consent referred to in point 1 sentence 1 shall be accompanied by detailed reasons.
3. Doctoral student or the head of a doctoral programme may apply to the head of an organisational unit for changing an academic tutor. The motion shall be accompanied by reasons.
4. In justified cases the head of an organisational unit may decide on changing an academic tutor. Decision issued by the head can be appealed against by doctoral student to the Rector via the head of an organisational unit within 14 day from the day when the decision was served.
5. In case of extending absence of an academic tutor, the head of an organisational unit may appoint another person who meets requirements specified in point 1 to temporarily act in the capacity of an academic tutor. When reasons which caused appointment of substitute terminate, an academic tutor shall inform the head of an organisational unit about readiness to be an academic tutor again. The head of an organisational unit shall decide on repeated appointment of an academic tutor.

6. In case of changing an academic tutor because of reasons referred to in points 2-5, new academic tutor shall be appointed in compliance with rules specified in point 1.

With the moment of initiation of doctoral assessment process an academic tutor may take the position of an academic supervisor pursuant to rules specified in separate regulations.

§ 26

Academic tutor shall in particular:

- 1) annually assess doctoral student's achievements and issue opinions concerning this matter;
- 2) issue opinions as regards doctoral student's motions concerning the course of study;
- 3) in consultation with the head of a given organisational unit and with reference to § 20 (11) determine rules of doctoral student's participation in research works and educational activities of the unit;
- 4) provide an opinion as regards completing courses by a doctoral student or performing other duties outside the Jagiellonian University.

Chapter 6 – Transitional and final provisions

1. The Regulations shall be in force as of 1st October 2015 and shall apply to all doctoral students who pursue doctoral programmes at the Jagiellonian University.
2. As from the entry into force of this Regulations shall be repealed resolution no. 35/III/2012 adopted by the Senate of the Jagiellonian University on 28th March 2012 on: Regulations for doctoral programmes at the Jagiellonian University, as amended.
